

OUNDLE INTERNATIONAL ORGAN WEEK

THE SUMMER SCHOOL

PROGRAMME

Three courses are offered:

ADVANCED ACADEMY for organists up to age 21

Seminars and Individual Tuition in

— the Interpretation of J. S. Bach

— Romantic Repertoire

— Twentieth Century British and American Organ Music

— Improvisation

PREPARING FOR UNIVERSITY OR MUSIC COLLEGE

A course to broaden horizons for those considering organ studies on leaving school, including day programmes in Oxford (arranged by Francis Grier) and Cambridge (arranged by Tim Brown); of particular value to potential University Organ Scholars.

BUILDING A REPERTOIRE

A course for younger organ students to develop technique and sense of musical style whilst furthering knowledge of repertoire.

FACILITIES

1984 Frobenius organ in Oundle School Chapel

1868 Walker organ in Oundle Parish Church

Small practice organs with mechanical action

Organs in Oxford, Cambridge and Nottingham

AWARDS

Gillian Weir will present awards to the Summer School's most promising students at a Platform Concert on the last night of the Week.

ACCOMMODATION

Summer School students will be accommodated in Oundle School.

OUNDLE — SCHOOL and TOWN

Oundle School, founded in 1556, is one of Britain's leading Independent Schools. Sited around a market town of great character, the School has lovely buildings and grounds. In addition to the Chapel, the Organ Week will use the School's new Stahl Theatre and Great Hall; there will also be concerts in nearby Elton Hall and Fotheringhay Church.

Oundle is just over one hour from London, travelling by rail.

Oundle International Organ Week reserves the right to make alterations to the programme if necessary.

to Oundle International Organ Week,

The Music School, West Street, Oundle, Peterborough PE8 4EJ. Tel. (0832) 72227

* Please send me further details of Oundle International Organ Week

* Please send me an application form for the Summer School

(*delete as appropriate)

Name Tel.

Address