

Marvellous Music

16th – 23rd July 1989

What could be more delightful for a summer's week? A series of recitals and concerts in the lovely rural setting of a historic market town. Read through our day-by-day programme details – the best of Bach and Baroque, a favourite clarinet concerto, cathedral choirs, piano and celebrity recitals, and organs of course. Book quickly.

SUNDAY JULY 16

A First Prize Recital. Our Week starts with a winner! Straight from triumphs at St Albans International Organ Competition, the first prize winner plays Oundle's magnificent three manual Frobenius organ.

Oundle School Chapel at 5pm
Sponsored by Bernard Kay

Fiori Musicali is one of the leading Baroque ensembles. The players are dedicated to the authentic re-creation of the splendour and style of 18th century music. In inspiring, historic surroundings they perform, under their director Penelope Rapson, a programme of sonatas, concertos, motets and arias by Bach, Handel, Vivaldi and Scarlatti.

St Mary and All Saints Church, Fotheringhay at 7.30pm

Gert von Bülow, renowned Danish cellist, plays Bach in a twilight recital, with James Parsons, harpsichord.

Yarrow Art Gallery, Oundle at 9.55pm

MONDAY JULY 17

Catherine Ennis is one of Britain's best-known organ recitalists and church musicians. A true virtuoso, her technical abilities and warm, vital playing will be fully in evidence in this programme of English organ music. Including a composition written for her last year, it features works by Gibbons, Purcell, Parry and Stanford.

Oundle School Chapel at 7.30pm
Sponsored by Hunt and Coombs (Solicitors)

A second twilight recital with Gert von Bülow playing more Bach.

Yarrow Art Gallery at 9.55pm

TUESDAY JULY 18

Gordon Stewart organist of Manchester Cathedral and Huddersfield City organist, studied with Gillian Weir and Lionel Rogg. This season in addition to appearing at OIOW he will play in the US, Germany and throughout the UK. His programme includes Romantic works by Dupré and Petr Eben.

Peterborough Cathedral at 1pm
Sponsored by Compart Technology

The Choir of St Paul's Cathedral is part of our ancient national heritage. Its beginnings go back to 1127 and today the voices of boys and gentlemen are heard on all major occasions as well as regular services. Directed by sub-organist John Scott for its Oundle concert the choir will sing music from five centuries.

Oundle School Chapel at 7.30pm
Sponsored by Price Waterhouse

Gert von Bülow and James Parsons play the third twilight recital of cello music by Bach.

Yarrow Art Gallery at 9.55pm

WEDNESDAY JULY 19

Graham Jackson is a young pianist whose recitals are greeted with critical acclaim and enthusiastic applause. A successful prize and scholarship winner while still a student, he has recently returned from master studies in Budapest. He plays Mozart's Sonata in F, Beethoven's Eroica Variations and Liszt's Sonata in B minor.

Stahl Theatre, Oundle at 7.30pm
Sponsored by Berry Surveyors

Peter Sweeney is an organist who makes you sit up and cheer. Winner of many prizes he is a regular broadcaster and has made several recordings. He is also founder and Artistic Director of the Dublin International Organ Festival and Director of Music at Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin. He plays an exciting programme of Bach and composers of the North German School.

Oundle School Chapel at 9.55pm

THURSDAY JULY 20

Jon Laukvik's harpsichord recital of pre-classical music will be eagerly attended in this fine country church. A versatile musician, he is well-known as organist, harpsichordist, composer and organ professor at the Staatliche Hochschule in Stuttgart. His programme includes works by Rameau, C P E Bach, Haydn and J S Bach.

St Rumbold's Church, Stoke Doyle at 7.30pm

Gert von Bülow in the final twilight recital of Bach's cello music.

Yarrow Art Gallery at 9.55pm

FRIDAY JULY 21

Nicolas Kynaston and the glory of King's College Chapel, Cambridge. From his wide-ranging solo repertoire this master of the 'king of instruments' plays a virtuosic programme of Romantic organ music. He plays works by Widor, Franck, Tournemire and Rebuke's celebrated Sonata on the 94th Psalm. A former organist of Westminster Cathedral, Kynaston is now established as one of today's foremost recitalists.

King's College Chapel, Cambridge at 1pm

The Copenhagen Youth Symphony Orchestra has gained a major reputation since its founding in 1980. Tonight's concert features the ever-popular, spirited clarinet concerto by Mozart and Carl Nielsen's third symphony with Danish soloists. Zbigniew Graca conducts.

Great Hall, Oundle School at 7.30pm
Sponsored by Christie's

SATURDAY JULY 22

Kimberly Marshall the dynamic American virtuoso organist and winner of the 1985 St Alban's Competition, gives a recital of music to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the French Revolution – 'La Guerre et la Paix'.

Oundle School Chapel at 11.30am
Sponsored by Simons of King's Lynn

The Wallace Collection an inspired group of brass and wind players who, with outstanding skill and style promote the dazzling repertoire of the trumpet. Featuring authentic piccolos, trumpets, trombones and serpents, and with contemporary narration by Gabriel Woolf, 'Music from the French Revolution' will rival the fireworks to follow.

Oundle School Chapel at 7pm
Sponsored by A R A Services Ltd (Catering)

Join us at the barbecue and firework display, then dance 'til dawn. Home Close, Glapthorn Road.

SUNDAY JULY 23

Festival Eucharist. Preacher, the Lord Bishop of Peterborough. Festival Choir, conducted by Martin Freke.

Oundle Parish Church at 10am

Demonstration of small organs by the tutors of Oundle International Organ Week.

Stahl Theatre at 12 noon

Students' Platform Concert. Participants in the Week's summer school will play from their repertoires. Awards will be presented by Erik Frobenius, builder of Oundle's organ. Reception follows.

Oundle School Chapel at 2.30pm
Sponsored by Carlsberg

BOOKING FORM

DATE	EVENT	£	NO	TOTAL
Sun 16 July	St Alban's Prize Winner*	1.50
	Fiori Musicali	2.50
	Gert von Bülow	Free Admission
Mon 17 July	Catherine Ennis*	1.50
	Gert von Bülow	Free Admission
Tue 18 July	Gordon Stewart	Retiring Collection
	St Paul's Choir	4.00
		2.50
	Gert von Bülow	Free Admission
Wed 19 July	Graham Jackson	2.00
	Peter Sweeney*	1.50
Thu 20 July	Jon Laukvik	1.50
	Gert von Bülow	Free Admission
Fri 21 July	Nicolas Kynaston*	2.00
	Copenhagen Sym. Orch.	3.00
		2.00
Sat 22 July	Kimberly Marshall*	1.50
	Wallace Collection	4.00
		2.50
Sun 23 July	Platform Concert*	2.00
TOTAL – INDIVIDUAL TICKETS				£
Season Ticket admits to all events		18.00
Organ Buffs Tucket 6 recitals* plus Gordon Stewart		7.00
Weekend Welcome Friday evening to Sunday afternoon		7.00
TOTAL				£

Enclosed is a cheque/postal order (payable to OIOW) for £

Name

Telephone

Address

.....

..... Postal Code

Please tell us where you obtained this brochure

.....