

"There's sure no passion in the human soul,
But finds its food in music."

(George Lillo 1693 - 1739)

However much nourishment your soul receives during the Week, it is good to know that sustenance for the body is plentifully available too.

Oundle offers many pleasant places where you can relax with a drink, or have a snack or meal between concerts.

The Festival Club is where everyone adjourns when the music making temporarily ceases. As well as food and drinks, there will be displays and stalls selling records and books.

Sunday July 16 4 to 6.30pm. Afternoon tea before the recital
8 to 11pm Bar open

For the remainder of the week the Club will be open from 10am until 4pm for tea, coffee, snacks, lunches and afternoon tea.

The bar will be open from 1pm to 2pm and from 6.30pm to 11pm - 12 midnight on Friday July 21.

Saturday July 22 10am to 4pm Club open for tea, coffee and snacks
11am to 6pm Bar at the car display on the Home Close
8pm to 12 midnight Bar Home Close. Barbecue from 8.30pm £4

Sunday July 23 12 noon to 2.30pm Bar open; snacks available
Reception after the Platform Concert £2

The Stahl Theatre, a converted former chapel, is a delightfully different venue for recitals.

Wednesday July 19 Bar open from 7pm for pre-concert drinks and coffee.

Sunday July 23 Bar opens at 11am prior to the small organ demonstration.

After these events you are invited to repair to the Festival Club for further refreshment.

As well as the Festival venues Oundle has a traditional Teashop, licensed for wine, in the west end of town and a welcoming Coffee Tavern in the Market Place. Both are open mid-morning until 5.30pm - 6pm weekends.

Assistance for disabled concert goers is always willingly provided. Please ask.
