Music is not all at Oundle. The Community Day, on Saturday 20 July, is now another of the Festival's established traditions, ending the week in light-hearted mood. This year we double the fun, beginning the Festival week with a Festival Day at Fotheringhay on Sunday 14 July.

At Fotheringhay there will be maypole dancing, Morris men, a craft fair and victuals in the village hall. The York Waits will also entertain. All arranged by Juliet Wilson.

Oundle's community celebrations include the first ever Oundle Classic 10km road race and a fun run of 1.5km. The fun, if you're fit, starts at 12 noon from the Home Close. Other action will see cyclists in period costume braving the busy streets on penny farthings and other long-forgotten velocipedes. Add folk dancing and bountiful bargains at the good-cause charity stalls plus fireworks, barbecue and dancing after the jazz concert. All this is organised by the Oundle, Thrapston and District Round Table and the Home Farm Trust and proceeds go towards a new community mini-bus. Fireworks by Fox Fireworks.

You are invited to join us in the School Chapel at 11.00am for a complimentary coffee before Thierry Mechler's recital.

Oundle Horticultural Society holds its annual show on Saturday and Sunday 20 and 21 July. Open classes include baking and handicrafts as well as fruit and vegetables. Held in the School's Great Hall it is open Saturday from 2.30pm to 6.00pm and Sunday from 2pm to 5pm. There is a small admission charge and light refreshments will be available.

The Yarrow Art Gallery once again hosts a week-long exhibition of paintings and drawings by local artists. Many of the works are for sale. The Gallery is open from 2.00pm to 5.00pm and 7.00pm to 9.00pm each day; free admission. Many studios in the surrounding villages will be open for visitors to enjoy seeing the artists at work.

A Little Bit of Whimsy

Percy Whitlock's organ sonata, played by Roger Fisher in Tuesday's recital, was dedicated to detective novelist, Dorothy L Sayers and her heroine.

In light-hearted mood Oundle International Organ Festival invites you to answer the following questions and win a season ticket to Oundle Concerts 1991/92 or the 1992 Oundle International Organ Festival.

1. What is the name of Dorothy L Sayers' heroine?
2. What is the name of her 'partner in detection'?
3. Name two novels in which the heroine appears
4. Which Dorothy L Sayers novel is set in the Fens and has a musical motif?

Please place your entries in the box provided at all concerts. The first five correct entries opened on 21 July will win season tickets to the series of their choice.
