The Friends of the Festival

Our Friends are people who enjoy music and the arts and want to support their existence and continuation. Although business sponsorship for the Oundle Festival is generous, we also need the enthusiasm and financial support of individuals who care about the future of young musicians and the performing arts in this area.

This year the Friends of the Festival are sponsoring the celebrity organ recital given by Peter Hurford. A Friends' reception will take place after the recital by Anne Marsden Thomas.

Friends become involved with many aspects of the Festival as well as enjoying special benefits.

Look for a leaflet at any of our concerts or fill out the form on this page.

- Priority booking and advance details of all events
- Discount of 20% on all tickets
- A complimentary copy of the souvenir programme in which all Friends are listed
- Opportunities to attend special Friends' receptions and to meet the artists
- The chance to attend rehearsals, master classes and lectures
- Invitations to out-of-town concerts, opera performances and other musical and social events
