

University of Central England
ORGAN STUDIES
at
Birmingham Conservatoire

Birmingham Conservatoire is one of the country's leading music colleges. It is housed in purpose-built accommodation in the middle of this exciting city, between Symphony Hall – Europe's leading concert hall, home to our President, Simon Rattle, and the CBSO – and the Town Hall with its world-famous weekly organ recital series.

The Conservatoire offers:

- ~ Honours degree courses over three or four years leading to BA and BMus
- ~ Postgraduate DipMus course
- ~ Three new tracker action practice organs
- ~ Teaching and examinations on the new 40-stop Walker organ in St Chad's Cathedral
- ~ Staff who are active in the recital and cathedral world
- ~ Regular masterclasses and workshops
- ~ Student recital opportunities
- ~ Organ Scholarships at Birmingham Cathedral and other city churches
