The Organ in Western Culture

PETER WILLIAMS

How did the organ become a church instrument? In this fascinating investigation Peter Williams speculates on this question and suggests some likely answers. Central to the story he uncovers is the liveliness of European monasticism around 1000 and the ability and imagination of the Benedictine reformers.

Oundle School Playing Fields - 8.30 pm

Saturday 23 July

National Youth Jazz Orchestra co-promoted by Fantastic Fireworks Ltd

The Programme

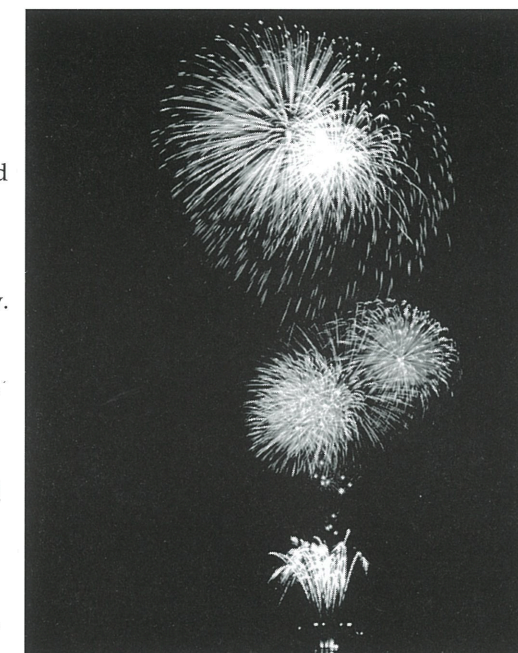

The programme for this evening's performance of the National Youth Jazz Orchestra will be announced by its conductor, Bill Ashton MBE, during the course of the evening.

The Performers

In association with Fantastic Fireworks Ltd, the Festival brings you an open air concert by the sensational National Youth Jazz Orchestra (conductor Bill Ashton) and a vivid pyrotechnic display.

Miles Kington remarked, "NYJO is simply the best big band in England." The band was formed in the early 1960's as a showcase for talented young jazz musicians of that day. NYJO receives enthusiastic support from jazz composers and musicians, especially Harry South, who provided many early scores. By 1974, NYJO appeared on Opportunity Knocks, toured with Selena Jones and was featured on BBC 2's In Concert. 1978 brought a Royal Variety Performance and recognition to Bill Ashton in the form of an MBE.

The musicians remain young, not through magic but through turnover. The average age is about 19 or 20. The alumni of the band are now becoming the British establishment of jazz performers. NYJO plays about 100 concerts annually throughout Britain.

This open-air concert gives you the opportunity to share in the excitement of big-band music coupled with the fun of fireworks. The grounds will be open for picnics at 7 pm. In addition to the food and drink you may have brought with you, the Festival invites you to sample the barbecue and drink available around the grounds. The music will begin at 8.30 pm, with the fireworks display at nightfall. Please remember to gather your belongings and take them with you as you leave! Bar closes at 11 pm.
