

CONCERTS

Thursday 20 July

Organ Recital by
Kimberly Marshall
Jesus Church, Oundle at 8pm

For her recital on the delightful new Festival organ in the Jesus Church, Kimberly Marshall presents Baroque fare, with pieces by J.S. Bach and his contemporaries. She is a former first prizewinner at St Albans and a firm favourite with audiences at Oundle.

Tickets £5

Friday 21 July

Lunchtime Organ Recital by
Nicolas Kynaston
St John's College Chapel, Cambridge at 1.10pm

The new Mander organ at St John's cuts a romantic dash. Nicolas Kynaston, one of the world's greatest organists, will put it through its paces with a formidable programme. He offers music by Bach, Max Reger and Marcel Dupré.

Tickets £3

Hooray Henry Purcell
a tercentenary musical celebration by
The City Waites
St Peter's Church,
Oundle at 8pm

A lively concert to place the music of our great British genius Henry Purcell in the context of the colourful London life he knew in the 17th century. The City Waites play the fiddle, lute, ottom, recorder, shawm and krumphorn, and sing too, often in a bawdy manner!

Tickets £7

Saturday 22 July

Saturday Coffee Concert
Organ recital by
David Higgs
Oundle School Chapel at 11.30am

As an acclaimed young virtuoso, American David Higgs receives rave reviews all over the world. This is his return visit to Oundle. Centrepiece of his dynamic programme will be Reubke's Sonata on the 94th Psalm.

Tickets £5 (includes complimentary cup of coffee at the Festival Club before the concert.)

Jazz 'n' Joplin
with The London
Ragtime Orchestra

Open-air Concert with Firework Finale

Oundle School Playing
Fields at 8.30pm
(grounds open from 7pm)

Invite the whole family and friends for a relaxing and nostalgic summer evening in the open-air. Bring rugs or chairs, candles and a picnic to join in the fun. There will be strolling circus players to amuse you, a welcoming bar tent and delicious snack food on offer. A spectacular firework display caps the show as darkness falls.

~ co-promoted by Pick Arthey (Oundle) Ltd ~
Tickets £10 or £40 for a party of 5

Sunday 23 July

Festival Mattins
St Mary's Church, Fotheringhay at 10.30am

Timothy Brown directs the Festival Choir in an uplifting series of anthems and canticles by Henry Purcell, all in the traditional liturgical context of Mattins. Officiant and preacher will be The Revd David Jamy.

~ a collection will be taken during the service ~

Young Organists' Platform Concert
Oundle School Chapel at 3.30pm

Oundle's summer school for young organists offers extremely valuable opportunities to over 50 highly talented students. Several will be selected to play at this prestigious composite recital. Dr Janet Rittman, Director of the Royal College of Music, will present the awards.

~ sponsored by Commercial Union Assurance Company plc and by Mr and Mrs M Lloiwarch ~
Tickets £4

Oundle International Festival reserves the right to change the programme.

Oundle International Festival

*~ classical music in a country setting ~
15 to 23 July 1995*

Oundle

'One of the most agreeable smaller towns in England, with an unusual number of good houses and a splendid decorated church tower and spire' according to Country Life. The surrounding Northamptonshire countryside is very attractive, its rolling fields and woodlands punctuated by historic villages in the local mellow limestone.

Oundle is situated approximately 12 miles to the west of Peterborough, and just 7 miles from the new A14 link road which connects M1 and A1, giving fast and easy access to the whole of the Midlands.

Hospitality

The Festival Club in Milton Road will be open for morning coffee, lunch, and tea throughout the Festival week; there is also a licensed bar. The souvenir programme will publish opening hours.

The following local hotels and restaurants will be pleased to welcome you:

Talbot Hotel, Oundle (01832 273621)
Haycock Hotel, Wansford (01780 782223)
Swallow Hotel, Peterborough (01733 371111)
Orton Hall Hotel, Peterborough (01733 391111)
Loch Fyne Oyster Bar, Elton (01832 280298)
Guest Houses, B & B's, Inns (01832 274333 - Oundle Tourist Information Centre)

Added Attractions

During the Festival there will be exhibitions in Oundle by Oundle Artists' Group and by Oundle and District Horticultural Society. The Home Farm Trust will hold their annual Fête on the Home Close. Visits to local artists' studios may be possible; ask at the Tourist Information Centre.

The Northamptonshire Blue Badge Guides will conduct a tour during the Festival: Oundle on Foot (20 July 11am). Phone the Festival office for details and to book a place.

The Festival appreciates support from

SPONSORS

Barton Petroleum
Commercial Union Assurance Co plc
Cleghorn Waring & Co (Pumps) Ltd
Friends of the Festival
Mr and Mrs M Lloiwarch
Motion Active
Netherseal Garage
Oundle School
Perkins Foods plc
Price Waterhouse
The Courtyard Gallery
Wallstreet Corporation

PUBLIC BODIES

East Northamptonshire District Council
Northamptonshire County Council
The Pairing Scheme
Visiting Arts

Oundle International Festival

15 to 23
July
1995

Director
James Parsons

Oundle '95

classical music in a country setting