Accident insurance is only for the superstitious.

Serious accidents are no laughing matter.

If you, or your partner or one of your children was involved in an accident which caused permanent disability, could you or your family cope with the unavoidable financial burden?

The new Holmwoods Family Personal Accident Scheme, in association with RoSPA, provides cash payments up to £200,000. The cover applies 24 hours a day, 365 days a year all over the world, for you and your children.

For full details call Holmwoods Insurance Services Limited on 01444 458144.

Festival Mattins

Voluntary Chaconne in G minor
Introit Let my prayer (John Blow)
Psalm Beati omnes (Ps 128 vv 1-4)
Te Deum in B flat
Jubilate in D
Anthem My beloved spake
Voluntary Trumpet Tune

Henry Purcell
(1659-1695)

The music during today's service will be performed by the Festival Choir specially formed from members of the summer school and local residents, and conducted by Timothy Brown. It will commemorate the tercentary of the death of Henry Purcell in 1695.

The choir's founder and conductor, Timothy Brown, is Director of Music at Clare College, Cambridge, and former Director of Music at Oundle School. He directs both Clare College Choir and Cambridge University Chamber Choir, taking both on extensive tours and making regular recordings. Clare College Choir also broadcasts regularly on the BBC and gives frequent concerts at Festivals both in Europe and the UK. As a freelance choral conductor, Timothy Brown is well-known in Europe and the USA, and later this year will take part in the 17th Zimriya (World Assembly of Choirs) in Jerusalem.

Oundle School Chapel - 3.30pm

Students' Platform Concert and Presentation of Awards

The Festival is pleased to welcome Janet Ritterman, Director of the Royal College of Music, to present the awards at today's ceremony. Formerly Principal of Dartington College of Arts, she has an international reputation for her work in music education. A pianist, accompanist, conductor and wind player, she has specialised in working with singers, and has chaired and produced national reports on opera training and orchestral provision. Janet Ritterman has many and varied interests in music, the arts and education, and is a member of the Society for Research into the Psychology of Music and Music Education.

A list of students attending this year's summer school is to be found on pages 18 and 19, together with the awards to be presented today and other information about the summer school.

Sunday 23 July

The Officiant at today's Mattins is The Revd David Jarmy, a non-stipendiary priest in the parish of Oundle since 1990. David Jarmy grew up in and around Leicester, where he was taught singing at the university and participated in a variety of musical activities, including oratorio, choral and early music. After ordination training at Chichester, he served in three parishes in Sussex, where he was involved in relating music to the needs of the liturgy. He has worked with several composers and musicians in seminars and workshops on liturgical music.

He is now Chaplain and head of Religious Education at Bishop Stopford School in Kettering.
