

Saturday 18th July

RCO Lecture

Playing and Studying Bach - where next?

Peter Williams

10am

Oundle School Chapel

Free admission

Sponsored by The Royal College of Organists

Coffee Concert - Organ Recital

Thomas Trotter

11.30am

Oundle School Chapel

Tickets £5

At the peak of his career as one of today's great British organists, Thomas Trotter brings an exciting programme designed to show the full resource of the Frobenius organ. He includes works by Mozart, Parry and an arrangement by Jean Guillou of Prokofiev's dazzling piano Toccata.

Sponsor

Price Waterhouse

Please join us for a cup of coffee at the Festival Club opposite the Chapel before the recital. Lunch is available afterwards at a reasonable price.

Monday 13th July

Organ Recital

Janette Fishell and Colin Andrews

7.30pm

Jesus Church, Oundle

Tickets £5

A popular recital by these two excellent organists from America, playing both solos and duets on the Festival organ. Their programme features baroque works and entertaining transcriptions for organ duet of Russian orchestral classics. A special element will be pieces by Czech composer, Petr Eben.

Sponsor

BARTON
PETROLEUM

Twilight Recital *Quartet for the End of Time

Ensemble d'Arcs-en-Ciel

Matthew Billing, clarinet

Ben Harte, violin

Vicky Matthews, cello

Min Jung Kim, piano

9.30pm

Oundle Parish Church

Tickets £4

The visionary music of Olivier Messiaen, who would have celebrated his 90th birthday this year, has become for many a significant inspiration in these times. Quartet for the end of Time, performed by this young ensemble from the Royal Academy of Music, was written whilst the composer was a prisoner of war in 1941. Here is a concert not to be missed.

Sponsor

CLEGHORN
WARING
PUMPS