

ROSE & CROWN
— OUNDLE —

A warm welcome awaits you at the Rose & Crown, Oundle.

Open all day every day, serving a selection of award winning real ales and fine wines with superb food lunchtimes and evenings.

Sunday lunch our speciality.
Always two roasts available with fresh local vegetables.

Telephone 01832 273284

Wadenhoe House Conference Centre

is happy to support the Oundle International Festival by offering its visitors

Overnight Accommodation and Full English Breakfast

This Jacobean Manor House, steeped in political history, lies in seven acres of landscaped grounds, situated in the village of Wadenhoe just 3 miles from the centre of Oundle.

Telephone 01832 720777 for further details

Tuesday 14th July

Rimsky-Korsakov String Quartet of St Petersburg

Mikhail Bondarev, violin Jekaterina Belissova, violin
Alexei Popov, viola
Stanislav Liamine, cello

7.30pm

St Mary's Church, Fotheringhay

Tickets £7

Hear this internationally fêted ensemble on its first visit to England.

Borodin

Rachmaninov

Shostakovich

String Quartet no 2 in D

String Quartet no 1 in G minor

String Quartet no 8 in C minor

Members of the audience are advised to bring a cushion.
The church is lovely but the Georgian pews are hard!

Sponsor Robert Weighton Architects

Film

Thirty Two Short Films about Glenn Gould (12) Dir. François Girard

10.15pm

Oundle Parish Church

Many will know of eccentric Canadian pianist Glenn Gould's extraordinary interpretations of J S Bach. This film, taking its cue from Gould's reading of Bach's Goldberg Variations, illuminates many facets of the artist's compelling personality.

Tickets £2.50, or free on production of a ticket to any other Festival event, to be shown at the door.