

Oundle International Festival and Summer School for Young Organists has expanded greatly since the first Festival 14 years ago.

In 1996 a new course was introduced, earlier in the year, for beginner organists or those who would like to start. The course is called Pulling Out the Stops and the third course will take place on the weekend of 26th to 28th March 1999.

Also since 1996 we have promoted a concert during the week before Christmas, a very festive occasion with mulled wine and canapés, set in one of Northamptonshire's magnificent country houses.
