

Wednesday 21st July

Reception for Friends of the Festival

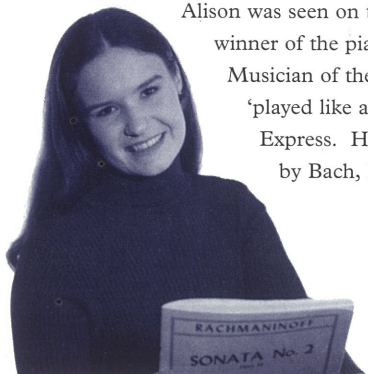

6pm

Alison Farr, piano

8pm

Oundle Parish Church

Tickets £6

Alison was seen on television by millions as winner of the piano section of the BBC Young Musician of the Year competition. She 'played like an angel' enthused the Daily Express. Her Festival recital features music by Bach, Poulenc and Messiaen.

Sponsor

Norwich and Peterborough
BUILDING SOCIETY

Comedy at the Club Stewart Collins, with Andy Read, piano

Bach to the Future

10pm

Festival Club

Tickets £6

An evening of seriously funny songs and sketches by seriously serious composers. Stewart had us all in stitches back in 1996. Return visit by popular demand!

Sponsor

Thursday 22nd July

Lunchtime recital

Nemo Brass Ensemble

1.15pm

Oundle Parish Church

Tickets £4

This dynamic young brass quintet, recent winners of the Royal Over-Seas League competition, plays a programme of lively pieces including Gershwin's Porgy and Bess and a transcription of J S Bach's Concerto in D minor.

Sponsor

Supported by The Royal Over-Seas League

A light lunch at a reasonable price is available in the new Festival Club before this event. (See map for details of its location.)

Guided Tour

Tickets £6 (pay on bus)

On the trail of Sir Thomas Tresham

Visit the Triangular Lodge at Rushton, an intriguing folly built in 1598 by Northamptonshire landowner and persecuted Catholic Thomas Tresham. There will also be a chance to visit adjacent Rushton Hall, extended and 'modernised' by Tresham, an elegant pile not often open to the public. Teas available.

Departs at 2.45pm from the Gascoigne Building car park; please see map for location. Phone 01832 272026 for further information and details.

Celebrity Organ Recital Ludger Lohmann

7.30pm

King's College Chapel,
Cambridge

Tickets £7

Internationally admired as one of the world's top organists of today, Ludger Lohmann from Stuttgart plays a bravura programme which looks back to 1899, including Max Reger's epic Sonata in F sharp minor, and Louis Vierne's gloriously lyrical Symphonie no 1.

Co-promoted with Cambridge Summer Recitals