Young Organists' Platform Concert

2.30pm

Oundle School Chapel

Tickets £5

The Oundle Summer School for Young Organists is famous throughout the world for its inspiring tuition in a non-competitive atmosphere. This week students from all over the UK, Denmark, Sweden, Latvia, Australia, Czech Republic, Canada and the USA have taken part in the Oundle experience. This afternoon several students drawn from each of the four courses will play the Frobenius organ in a show of talent that will amaze.

For a sparkling opening to the Festival, this highly acclaimed baroque ensemble strips away the varnish of the centuries to reveal the brilliant colours of 18th century music. The programme features the undoubted appeal of Handel and his contemporaries in a series of charming concertos.

Concert ends at approximately 10pm.
