The choice is yours at this entertaining open-air concert: strolling players will amuse, bars and barbecue are available if you don't feel like bringing a picnic, and we guarantee you'll enjoy the patter as well as the music from that master of repartee, Humphrey Lyttelton. Do bring chairs or rugs, as no seating is provided.

Humphrey Lyttelton

First on stage is Martin Taylor's band Spirit of Django, recreating the atmosphere of the legendary Hot Club de Paris with a contemporary sound inspired by the gypsy guitar genius Django Reinhardt.

Making a welcome return to the Festival by popular demand, Humphrey Lyttelton and his Band provide not only the kind of foot-tapping rhythm that gets everyone on the dance floor, but also hilarious comments from the master of ad lib.
