

Monday 17th July

Organ Recital

Mattias Wager

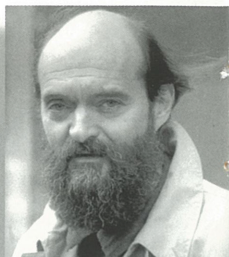

7.30pm

Jesus Church, Oundle

Tickets £6

Arvo Pärt

Acclaimed young organist from Sweden in a wide-ranging programme. Enjoy music by Bach and contemporary Swedish composers played on the delightful Festival organ.

Estonian composer Arvo Pärt will be present to hear some of his fascinating pieces, also included in the programme. To conclude the recital, Mattias will demonstrate his very considerable skills as an improviser.

Sponsor IKEA Wholesale

Embassy of Sweden

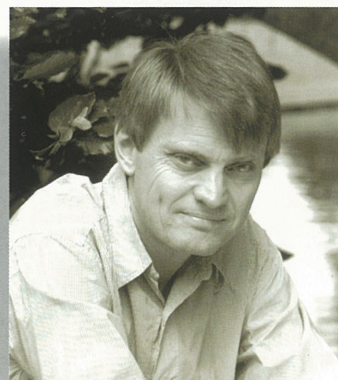

Bach at Twilight

Simon Standage, violin

9.30pm

St Rumbald's Church, Stoke Doyle

Tickets £7*

Book early to hear Simon Standage's second recital of Bach Partitas for solo violin in the charming Georgian church-in-a-field at Stoke Doyle. This is the perfect setting for Bach's music.

*Buy a ticket for both Simon Standage's recitals, and save £1 on each.

Bar open at Stoke Doyle Church before the recital.

Sponsor

Friday 21st July

Lunchtime Organ Recital

John Butt, organ

1.15pm

Trinity College Chapel, Cambridge

Tickets £4 (available at door only)

The Trinity College organ is arguably one of this country's finest instruments for interpreting Bach's music. John Butt, known as one of the world's leading Bach scholars and players, presents a varied selection of the master's works.

Sponsors Howard and Sue Phillips

Julian Lloyd Webber with

English Sinfonia

John Farrer, conductor

7.30pm

Oundle School Chapel

Tickets £12.50 and £10;

£5 children (16 & under)

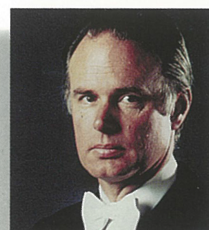

An unmissable chance to hear world famous cellist Julian Lloyd Webber play Elgar's haunting cello concerto. Then, to complement Elgar's lyrical outpouring, the revolutionary fervour of Beethoven's Eroica Symphony bursts in with irresistible dramatic force. Music by Michael Nyman (well known for his film music scores, including The Piano) and Arvo Pärt's Fratres complete the programme.

Sponsors

The Courtyard Gallery

Supported by

John Farrer

Film

Hilary and Jackie (15) dir. Anand Tucker 1998

10pm (121 mins)

Festival Club

Tickets £2.50 at the door

The career of legendary cellist Jacqueline du Pré, famed for her performances of the Elgar Concerto, under the spotlight.