The rich colours of this magnificent Cavaillé-Coll style organ are explored in a programme of works by Bach written in a French style. Exciting repertoire by French composers whose careers were influenced by Bach are also featured.

Laudibus

Michael Brewer, director

7.30pm

St Mary's Church, Fotheringhay

Tickets £11

This polished ensemble of young voices is already hailed as one of the finest chamber choirs in the world. Their programme is an intriguing blend of the sacred and the secular, ranging from Byrd and Bach to Tavener and Tippett, and includes Allegri's soaring Miserere. Arvo Pärt will be present to hear the choir perform some of his hypnotically beautiful music. '...their stylish singing of baroque, romantic or contemporary music has to be heard to be believed.' John Eliot Gardiner Cushions provided!
