

Wednesday 19th July

Festival Club

6pm

Reception for Friends of the Festival

Alexander Taylor, piano

7.30pm

Oundle Parish Church

Tickets £7

One of Britain's outstanding young pianists, Alexander Taylor won the Gold Medal at the 1998 Royal Over-Seas League Competition. Tonight he applies his breathtaking virtuosity to music by Haydn, Liszt and Shostakovich, and concludes with the astonishing Winnsboro Cotton Mill Blues by Rzewski.

Supported by The Royal Over-Seas League

Bach at Twilight

Kimberly Marshall, organ
The Life and Times of Johann Sebastian Bach
 Voice of J S Bach Colin Pendrill

9.30pm

Oundle School Chapel

Tickets £5

Follow the career of J S Bach, one of music's greatest geniuses, in an entertaining and illuminating programme combining narrative and some of his finest organ music. Acclaimed American organist and scholar, Kimberly Marshall, makes a welcome return to the Festival.

Sponsor The Royal College of Organists

Thursday 20th July

Take the opportunity to spend an enjoyable day out in Oundle, visiting the market in the morning, lunching at the Festival Club (at 12.15pm) attending the lunchtime recital, and then joining the tour on the trail of John Dryden. An all-inclusive price for lunch (usually £3.50), recital and tour is offered at £11 (saving £3.50).

Lunchtime Recital

Kungsbacka Trio

1.15pm

Oundle Parish Church

Tickets £5

The peaceful and comfortable ambience of the Parish Church provides an agreeable setting for the Trio's programme of Haydn, Schubert and Shostakovich. Welcome to this brilliant, prize-winning piano trio.

Sponsor

Supported by The Tillett Trust

Guided Tour

Dryden country

Tour guide David Dew

2.45pm

Tickets £6 (see top of page for inclusive ticket details)

The area around Oundle is steeped in the history of 17th century Poet Laureate John Dryden. Today's tour includes the church at Pilton where Dryden's parents were married, Aldwinckle All Saints, where he was baptised, St Mary's Titchmarsh, Dryden's parents' house in Titchmarsh, and Cotterstock Hall.

Celebrity Organ Recital

Martin Baker

7.30pm

King's College Chapel, Cambridge

Tickets £7

Recently appointed Master of Music at Westminster Cathedral, Martin Baker, internationally admired for his interpretations and improvisations, unleashes the full power of the splendid organ in King's College Chapel. Programme includes Liszt's epic Ad nos ad salutarem undam; he also offers an improvisation on a submitted theme.

In association with Cambridge Summer Music Festival