

Monday 16th July

Lunchtime Organ Recital

François Espinasse

1.15pm

Exeter College
Chapel, Oxford

Free Admission

Illustrious French organist François Espinasse exploits the full colours of the Cavaillé-Coll style organ in the Victorian Gothic chapel which Gilbert Scott designed in homage to La Sainte-Chapelle in Paris. Spectacular French programme.

Sponsor David Mason

Celebrity Organ Recital

Carole Terry

7.30pm

St Mary's Church, Fotheringhay

Tickets £7.50

We are delighted to welcome Carole Terry, internationally renowned organist from Seattle, to play the first Festival recital on the brand new Vincent Woodstock organ in this historic church. Music by Mendelssohn and his school.

Sponsor

CLEGHORN
WARING
PUMPS

with assistance from Virgin Atlantic

Twilight Recital

A Garland of English Song - I I

Mary Nelson, soprano with

Lucy Wakeford, harp

9.30pm

St Peter's Church
(Oundle Parish Church)

Tickets £7

These two prize-winning young artists, both recently selected by the Young Concert Artists Trust, continue the Festival's celebration of the English Muse. Songs and harp music by Britten, including A Birthday Hansel, bring a peaceful end to the day.

Tuesday 17th July

Lunchtime Organ Recital

Markku Mäkinen

1.05pm

Jesus Church, Oundle

Tickets £3

The Festival's annual recital at the Jesus Church is always a draw. This year brilliant prize-winning Finnish organist Markku Mäkinen puts the Bower instrument through its paces.

Sponsor

Norwich and Peterborough
BUILDING SOCIETY

Open-air Theatre

Illyria

Alice in Wonderland

7.30pm

The Creed
Chapel,
Ashton,
Oundle

Tickets £10

child £5 (16 and under)

The performance will end at approx. 9.20pm

Suitable for ages five to Old-Enough-To-Know-Better!

The Mad Hatter, the Cheshire Cat, Tweedledum and Tweedledee - they're all here as Lewis Carroll's story springs to life in Illyria's new production. The garden of the new Festival headquarters at Ashton, near Oundle makes a lovely setting for this sparkling version of a well-loved tale. Illyria's production is a spectacle not to be missed. 'This is indeed fun for all the family; I'm not sure which age-group loved it most.'

'To say that it riveted the audience would be an understatement.'

Please bring a picnic, and chairs or rugs, as no seating is provided.

Gates open at 5pm.

Film

Shakespeare in Love (15)

10pm (123 mins)

Stahl Theatre

Tickets £2.50

Ornately packaged Elizabethan costume drama with witty script by Tom Stoppard. Will Shakespeare (Joseph Fiennes), facing strife over his new play 'Romeo and Ethel', finds fresh inspiration with the arrival of the latest starlet (Gwyneth Paltrow). Great entertainment.