

Saturday 13th July

dance the night away!

Lady Sings the Blues

starring Val Wiseman

Cotton Club Orchestra

Fireworks by pa-BOOM!

Poplars Field, Pavilion Drive, Oundle

Grounds open at 5pm

Concert begins at 7.30pm

Fireworks display 10.45pm

Tickets £13 to £17 (see booking form for details)

Please bring a picnic and chairs or rugs - no seating provided. Bar and barbecue available. Limited number of sites for canopies at £20 each; please tick box on form. Only pre-booked canopies may be erected.

Lady Sings the Blues

This is no ordinary celebration of the music of Billie Holiday, but a lovingly-created tribute to the finest of all jazz singers, performed brilliantly by an exceptional group of award-winning musicians and a remarkable jazz singer.

'Val Wiseman manages to capture the vocal shade of Billie's style without at any time sounding like a slavish imitation.....

Lady Sings the Blues gets my vote as the British CD of the year.' CD Review

Cotton Club Orchestra

There is no better band to get you dancing than this! The Orchestra evokes The Cotton Club - the unique New York night spot in the '20s and '30s, famed for its jazz.

Supported by BARCLAYS

OIF is grateful to BIZLEY
CLEANING SERVICES
Bizley Cleaning Services and
Berry Skips for site clearance.

DANCE FLOOR

Sunday 14th July

Celebrity Organ Recital

Kevin Bowyer

5pm

Oundle School Chapel

Tickets £7.50

Superb recitalist and tutor to the International Summer School for Young Organists, Kevin Bowyer displays the full colours of the Frobenius organ in a virtuosic programme which includes Bach's Prelude & Fugue in D, Jean Langlais' Fête, and the premiere of Festival by Diana Burrell.

Sponsor David Mason

The Razumovsky Ensemble

7.30pm

St Peter's Church, Oundle

Tickets £10

This leading ensemble comprises some of the world's leading string players, all of whom are outstanding soloists in their own right, enjoying international careers. Their Festival programme features Schubert's hauntingly beautiful Quintet in C, and Boccherini's sunny C major Quintet.

members of the
Razumovsky Ensemble

Yuko Inoue

Alexander Chaustan

Oleg Kogan

Twilight Organ Recital

Daniel Moult

9.45pm

St Rumbald's Church, Stoke Doyle

Tickets £6

This brilliant young organist, currently organist of Coventry Cathedral, studied with Jacques van Oortmerssen in Amsterdam and interprets early music with great sensitivity. Hear the delightful small organ recently installed St Rumbald's, in an atmospheric programme of music by Sweelinck, Byrd, JS and CPE Bach, and Mozart.

