Alan Price

Two of the greatest names in rock music will have everyone dancing this evening. Best known for the 1960s iconic hit House of the Rising Sun with The Animals, Alan Price still knows how to draw the crowds.

Rough, tough and always rocking, the legendary King Pleasure & the Biscuit Boys zany stage show sometimes belies the fact that here is the finest, most authentic Rhythm & Blues band ever to come from outside the USA.

This evening is all about Entertainment with a capital E, live music for a great night out!

Please bring a picnic and chairs or rugs - no seating provided. Bars and barbecue available. Limited number of sites for pre-booked canopies only, at £20 each - please tick box on form.

Oundle School Chapel

Tickets £16 / £14 (all reserved seats)

Ticket price includes pre-concert talk
- see below.
