

NENE VALLEY CHURCHES ORGANS PROJECT

patrons

Sir William Proby
Sir Philip Naylor-Leyland
Norman Painting

We are delighted to report that the Project, whose aim is to provide for the restoration, reconstruction or creation of excellent pipe organs in five Nene Valley Churches, is about to receive charitable status, and has already received several generous donations from the Jack Patson Trust, the A H Lynall Foundation, the Williams School of Church Music and the Earl Fitzwilliam Charity.

As a result of these grants, the restoration of the 1861 Walker organ in Tansor Parish Church will be carried out in autumn 2003.

Further schemes, for which funds are sought, include

- a new organ in the style of 1727 for Stoke Doyle Church
- the relocation and improvement of the 1868 Walker organ in Oundle Parish Church
- a new instrument within the Victorian swallow's nest case at Thurning Parish Church
- reconstruction of the Nicholson organ in Warmington Parish Church
