The Royal Hospital Church Music Scholarship 2003-2004

The Commissioners of the Royal Hospital Chelsea maintain an annual scholarship (£3,500), to enable a promising young church musician to receive practical guidance, support and experience.

Applications are invited from aspiring church musicians aged between 18 and 26 who should be full-time music students at a recognised institution of Higher Education, living within easy reach of Central London. The Scholar's duties will include sharing, with the Organist, playing and directing the professional choir for Chapel services and assisting with administration. Availability at major Festivals will be essential.

The Scholarship will be tenable for one academic year (from September 2003 to July 2004). The closing date for applications is 31st March 2003 and auditions and interviews will take place in May 2003.

For further details please write to The Organist, Ian Curror, Royal Hospital, Chelsea, London SW3 4SR or send an email to curror@usa.net

St. Paul's Cathedral Melbourne

A gap year Organ Scholarship is offered from October 2003 in association with Trinity Grammar, the Cathedral Choir School.

St. Paul's Cathedral Melbourne is one of the few Cathedrals outside England to maintain daily Choral Evensong. The Choir (men and boys) is enhanced by the superb T. C. Lewis 1890, four manual organ, restored in 1990 by Harrison and Harrison of Durham.

Scholarship includes accommodation, weekly allowance, tuition and possible assistance with air fares.
