MUSIC

IN QUIET PLACES

Welcome to Music in Quiet Places, another season of concerts in five of north-east Northamptonshire's most attractive village churches.

This year you can hear one of the UK's most exciting young string quartets playing masterworks by Mozart and Beethoven, a scintillating guitar duo, two beautiful song cycles, exhilarating music from the old Jewish tradition, plus a performance by Europe's only baroque and tango orchestra.

Our thanks go to the churches for hosting the concerts and for offering everyone a warm welcome. Refreshments will usually be available during the intervals, provided by members of the church.

Car parking is usually close to the church, but may be on unlit streets. Remember too that pews are often hard – please do bring a cushion if you wish. There are toilet facilities in the churches at Nassington, King's Cliffe and Barnwell.

Music in Quiet Places welcomes disabled concert-goers.
For assistance with access or for further information please telephone 01780 470297.

Music in Quiet Places reserves the right to make any changes to the programme that may prove necessary.

Music in Quiet Places is grateful to Loch Fyne Restaurant, Elton for their continuing support of the series in the form of Gift Vouchers, awarded as raffle prizes at each concert.
