PULLING OUT THE STOPS (POTS)

1-3 April 2005 at Oundle

START PLAYING THE PIPE ORGAN

residential weekend course for beginners, early stages-organists and pianists who would like to start organ playing.

Have you been thrilled by the sound of some great pipe organ thundering through the echoing spaces of a huge cathedral? Saw Simon Preston on TV playing the Royal Albert Hall organ at The Last Night of the Proms? Been impressed by what goes on at the console when asked by your choirmaster to turn pages? Yes?... then come to Oundle and try it for yourself!

If you play the piano to about grade 4, Pulling Out The Stops is for you.

Or perhaps you have already had a few organ lessons; again, Pulling Out The Stops is just what you need to move ahead. You will enjoy it and make new friends.

- 'organ crawl' to Cambridge
- hear Henry Fairs's recital (see page 19)
- warm and comfortable accommodation at The Berrystead, Oundle School.

THE TUTORS

Anne Marsden Thomas

How to Apply see pages 15, 17, 18

THIS COURSE HAS ALWAYS PROVED REALLY POPULAR - IT'S JUST SUCH FUN - APPLY EARLY

RUGBY SCHOOL 100% SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE FOR 2006

Rugby School offers a generous number of Music Scholarships

These are available to boys and girls for entry to the School at 13+ and to the Sixth Form.

In addition the School's Arnold Foundation is committed to supporting talented boys and girls, especially those from the maintained sector, whose parents would otherwise be unable to fund the fees.

Applications are particularly welcome from organists. The School's 3 organs include an award-winning 4 manual Kenneth Jones instrument in the Butterfield School chapel. Music at Rugby is exciting and diverse, with numerous opportunities for all types of music-making.

Rugby School offers outstanding pastoral care and facilities, excellent examination results at GCSE and A Level and a comprehensive extra-curricular programme in an enriching co-educational, full-boarding environment.

All Scholarship awards at Rugby School may be means-tested to cover 100% of the school fees.
