Organ Scholarship

We appoint an organ scholar each academic year. This practically-focused scholarship involves plenty of organ playing opportunities on our fine 3 manual 1990 Walker organ. Both service and recital performance is encouraged. Conducting opportunities are also an available (though not compulsory) feature of the scholarship. St Martin's is a busy musical venue in the heart of London's West End. Further details and application forms available from:

Nicholas Danks, Director of Music, St Martin-in-the-Fields
6 St Martin's Place, Trafalgar Square, London, WC2N 4JJ.

THE ROYAL HOSPITAL CHURCH MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP 2006-2007

The Scholarship provides a unique opportunity to receive practical guidance, support and experience in a friendly and supportive environment. It is designed for young organists (aged 18-27), preferably students in Higher Education, who live within easy reach of Central London and are available on Sundays, occasional weekdays and the major Feasts. Benefits include:

- apprentice-style training
- activities tailored to individual wishes and needs
- development of organ accompaniment skills
- development of choral directing and rehearsal skills
- development of organisational skills
- working with a first-class team of professional singers
- expanding your musical contacts in London
- ideal preparation for RCO and other diplomas

The Scholarship will be tenable for one academic year (from September 2006 to July 2007).

The closing date for applications is 30 November 2005 and auditions and interviews will take place in January 2006.

For further details and an individual response please write to The Organist, Ian Curror, Royal Hospital, Chelsea, London SW3 4NL or send an email to: iancurror@chelsea-pensioners.org.uk
