Are you thinking about healthy eating?

The Seven Wells company is owned by three farming families in Northamptonshire. Our animals are born and bred locally and fed on grass in the summer and our home produced natural feed in the winter.

We love the countryside we live in and to watch our animals enjoy a carefree life of grazing the lush pastures.

To enjoy our healthy produce please visit our friendly local establishments

Björn Again

Since the group was founded in 1988 in Melbourne, Australia by research technician turned manager and musician, Rod Leissle, Björn Again have performed over 3,000 concerts in more than 50 countries. Björn Again have been hailed as the most popular and successful Abba tribute show in the world, the only one endorsed by Benny and Björn of Abba.

Abba are celebrating thirty years since their monumental Eurovision song contest win with 'Waterloo'; they were recently offered one billion dollars to re-form for a year-long tour, which they turned down.

'Björn Again are now so successful that soon they will have a tribute band of their own. They could call it, for example, Abba.'

Andy Cooper's Euro Top 8 Jazz Band

Andy Cooper, clarinet, vocal

Mike Cotton, trumpet, harmonica

Johnny Barnes, clarinet, saxophones, vocal

Ulf Johansson, trombone, piano and vocal

Pasquale Michaux, piano, clarinet, bass, saxophones, flute, oboe

Peter Meyer, banjo, guitar, vocal

Tucker Finlayson, bass

Nick Millward, drums, vocal

Euro Top 8 first got together in December 1996 to play a Christmas concert in Gelsenkirchen, Germany, which proved a tremendous success. A year later they undertook a short tour of Europe in December 1998, followed by a more extensive tour in January 2000, and have never looked back.

The line-up of musicians in the band allows them the versatility to play Dixieland, Swing, Blues, New Orleans, Jump and Jive, with always the emphasis on entertainment. Andy Cooper says: 'It has been one of the great highlights of my career putting this super band together with musicians I've admired for a long time'.

Take Six - Jazz, Blues and Swing
