French Film Season NOTRE MUSIQUE (12A)

Director: Jean-Luc Godard (2004)

9.45pm Arthur Marshall Room, Oundle School Great Hall

Part poetry, part journalism, part philosophy, Jean-Luc Godard's
'Notre Musique' is a timeless meditation on war as seen through the prisms of cinema, text and image. Largely set at a literary conference in Sarajevo, the film draws on the conflagration of the Bosnian war, but also draws on the Israeli/Palestinian conflict, the brutal treatment of Native Americans, and the legacy of the Nazis.

Structured into three Dantean Kingdoms - Hell, Purgatory and Heaven - the film intermingles real-life literary figures (including Arab poet Mahmoud Darwish and Spanish writer Juan Goytisolo) with actors; documentary meshes with fiction.

In association with Oundle Cinema.

French, with subtitles.
