

Wednesday 19th July

Twilight Organ Recital Bine Bryndorf

9pm St Mary's Church, Fotheringhay
Tickets £7

Bine, who is Professor of Organ at The Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen, enjoys international acclaim for her impeccable and historically-informed baroque playing, as many will appreciate from her emerging CD series covering all Buxtehude's organ works. Her Fotheringhay programme juxtaposes Buxtehude, Bach and Couperin with the sparky textures of modern Danish music by Vagn Homboe.

French Film Season

In association with Oundle Cinema

Les Choristes (12A)

Director: Christophe Barratier 2004
France 96 mins (subtitled)

8pm Arthur Marshall Room,
Oundle School Great Hall

Tickets £4

In January 1949 a former music teacher arrives at a dark, doom-laden boarding school for orphans and troubled boys, most of whom receive severe punishments for their faults. When Clément decides to introduce these young delinquents to music - to sing in a choir - he finds that there is more to the children than could have been imagined.

A film which combines humour, spirit, understanding and forgiveness, and above all, music.

Thursday 20th July

Guided tour of the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge with Introductory Talk by Duncan Robinson, Director

1.30pm
Tickets £15

The Fitzwilliam Museum is one of the finest museums in the country, containing magnificent collections of art and antiquities. A privileged aspect of this visit will be a welcome by the Director of the Museum, Duncan Robinson, who will talk about the Museum's treasures and their significance, including 19th century French paintings and work by the Impressionists. Duncan Robinson, who is also Master of Magdalene College, Cambridge, is a renowned authority in art history, and a genial and gifted speaker.

Time will be allowed to visit the teashop at the Museum.

Booking essential. Numbers strictly limited, so please book early.

It is advisable to telephone 01832 275109 before booking by post, to see if places are still available.

Coach leaves Oundle at 1.30pm.

Back in Oundle at approximately 6 pm.

Thursday 20th July

Children's Concert King's Chamber Orchestra Conductor Gerard Le Feuvre

1.45pm St Peter's Church (Parish Church)
Tickets £5

The French Underwater Explorer – Guest Conductor Inspector Clue-steau

A warm welcome back to this London-based chamber orchestra, which charmed all who attended their children's concert last year. Their very entertaining programme will include works by Britten (Playful Pizzicato and Frolicsome Finale), Grieg (Prelude to the Holberg Suite) and, of course, the Theme from the Pink Panther by Henry Mancini. Lots of fun and interaction is the order of the day, and maybe a chance to wield the conductor's baton!

Suitable for children of all ages.

Sponsor

Thursday 20th July

Cabaret Dominic Alldis Ensemble Dominic Alldis, piano, voice, arranger Iain Ballamy, saxophone Martin France, drums Alec Dankworth, bass

with The Pavão Quartet
Kerenza Peacock, violin
Jenny Sacha, violin
Natalia Gomes, viola
Bryony James, cello

8pm Oundle School Great Hall
Tickets £13

Themes from French Cinema

Acclaimed jazz singer-pianist Dominic Alldis performs enchanting arrangements of themes from classic French cinema, including A Man And A Woman, The Umbrellas of Cherbourg, and Windmills of my Mind, written by Michel Legrand for the film 'The Thomas Crown Affair'.

Dominic will be joined by three stars from the London jazz scene as well as the captivating Pavão Quartet. As you will hear, their music brings together the sophistication of cabaret and the improvisational excitement of jazz.

This is a cabaret concert - the audience will be seated at tables and a bar is available. No smoking.

Sponsor  artisana