Robin Hood

Directed and adapted by Oliver Gray

Theresa Brockway plays Maid Marian and the Bishop of St Mary's

Adrian Clargo plays Robin Hood and Justice

Matt Crosby plays Prince John and Will Scarlet

Edward Day plays Little John and Baron Fitzwater

Annie Lees Jones plays Friar Tuck and the Sheriff of Nottingham

Archery, Roaming through the Glen, Merry Men in Tights ... everything you ever wanted to know – and one or two things you didn't – about the most enduring of English legends and his adventures is brought together in a riotous and exciting new show.

King Richard has gone to fight in the Crusades, but while he is away evil Prince John and the Sheriff of Nottingham take over the land and tax the people into desperate poverty. Enraged by this injustice, one man decides to fight back; his name is Robin Hood.
Gathering his men in Sherwood Forest, Robin fights and defeats the Sheriff of Nottingham, proves himself to be the finest archer in the kingdom, and wins the love of the fair Maid Marian. But when Prince John declares himself King, how will Robin fight an entire army and save England?

Director Oliver Gray has adapted the play from medieval ballads, the poem 'The Gest of Robin Hood' (1410), Anthony Munday's play
'The Downfall of Robert Earl of Huntington' (1598), Thomas Love Peacock's novel 'Maid Marian' (1822) and Tennyson's operetta
'The Foresters' (1892).

Bar and coffee available.
