The Tudor House

Northamptonshire is a fine county for exploring Tudor houses. Kirby Hall, although partly a ruin, gives us a wonderful opportunity to understand what the Tudor house was like and how it worked. The tour will also offer an insight into the architecture of Kirby Hall and its gardens, which are nearing completion. Well-known locally for his ability to bring history to life, David Bond will be our guide for a tour of this fascinating place.

Organ recital

Tom Bell

8pm St Mary & All Saints Church,
Fotheringhay

Tickets £7

Tom Bell drew great praise from the tutors at the 2006 Oundle for Organists Advanced Academy course in Cambridge and was nominated to play five prestigious recitals around the UK under the Oundle banner. He had first come to notice at the very first Pulling Out The Stops course for early-stages organists back in 1997. Now, as a pupil of Kevin Bowyer and Jacques van Oortmerssen, a first-class graduate of the Royal Northern College of Music and a dynamic young organist of astonishing maturity, we welcome him back to play a varied, virtuoso programme – ancient and modern.

Bar open before the recital

Recital ends at approximately at 9pm

The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain

8pm Marquee on the lawn at rear of
NEW Festival Club in Milton Road

Tickets £16 front / £14 rear

(£5 under 21 – limited number available)

The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain, seen and heard across the globe, is provocative, entertaining and inspiring. Their shows combine music, humour and intelligence with the ridiculous. Using a menagerie of voices and cheap instruments, the band successfully mixes highbrow with lowbrow to appeal to an astonishingly broad audience.

Wherever the Ukulele Orchestra performs, from Never Mind The Buzzcocks Christmas Special and Jools Holland's Hootenanny to Blue Peter and Richard & Judy, they bring a hilarious style that is all their own. Consummate singers and strummers, they perform anything from Frank Sinatra's Fly Me to the Moon to Hotel California by the Eagles, taking in a Handel air along the way. It's a 'Foot-Stomping Obituary of Rock-n-Roll' – and very funny!

'The best musical entertainment in the country.'
The Independent
