

PULLING OUT THE STOPS (POTS) –

13-15 April 2007, at Oundle, Northamptonshire

This annual residential weekend course, now in its eleventh year, has always proved really popular – it's such fun! For 2007 we are expanding to 36 places. We welcome students (typical age 10-15) who are either young organists up to grade 5 or pianists at grade 4 standard (minimum) who wish to try the pipe organ. Pulling Out The Stops is just what you need to move ahead!

THE TUTORS

Anne Marsden Thomas -

for the third year, Anne leads the team - the UK's foremost organ instructor - founder director of St Giles International Organ School

Daniel Moulton - assistant director of music at St Peter's, Eaton Square - popular organist, teacher and organ amateur with roadshows for schools at Manchester's Bridgewater Hall - the liveliest lad on the block!

Jeffrey Makinson - brilliant young performer - sub-organist of Manchester Cathedral - tutor in organ at RNCM, and piano tutor at Chetham's School of Music - organist for BBC Radio 4's Daily Service

Francesca Massey - first ever female organ scholar of St George's Chapel, Windsor and now senior organ scholar at Manchester Cathedral - prizewinner at FRCO examinations - outstanding player and enthusiastic personality

James Parsons - founder director of Oundle for Organists - recitalist and recording artist - visiting tutor at Birmingham Conservatoire - Council member of the Royal College of Organists - former director of music at Oundle School

Aspects of the weekend

- eight inspiring lessons in small groups on excellent organs in Oundle and local villages (including classes on pedal technique and hymn playing)
- 'organ crawl' to Cambridge Colleges
- tutors and experienced pastoral staff CRB cleared

- Toccata! - popular organ recital by Daniel Moulton at St Catharine's College, Cambridge on Saturday 14 April (7.30pm)
- cosy accommodation and recreational facilities at The Berrystead (Oundle School's junior boarding house)
- student concert on Sunday 15 April at 2.30pm in Oundle School Chapel - all welcome

Fees

£225 covers everything - accommodation, meals, transport during the weekend and Daniel's recital.

But apply now and gain 10% discount

Early applicants who apply and pay by 31 January 2007 may deduct 10% from the fee and pay only £202.50. We shall offer places on a 'first come ...' basis, though we reserve the right to refuse a place without stating a reason. If we cannot offer a place, we shall refund in full any monies paid.

If places remain unfilled by 31 January, we shall accept further applications until 5 March 2007 on payment of the full fee of £225.

Bursaries

You may be able to persuade your school or church to contribute, or perhaps we can offer bursaries to support those who cannot afford the fee - eg:

New Beacon Educational Trust bursary one full bursary for a student who would otherwise not be able to attend

general Oundle for Organists bursary Jean Winfrey award to encourage a girl to start the organ

Please send bursary applications by 31 January 2007, but send no money. We will apply the early application discount if we can offer you a place.

Oundle is a lovely old market town on the A605, 12 miles west of Peterborough. Easy road access via A1M or A14. We can meet trains at Peterborough.

Oundle for Organists presents Celebrity Organ Recital by

DAVID SANGER

Ely Cathedral
Wednesday 11 July 2007 at 7.30pm

admission by programme £8

Oundle for Organists and Oundle International Festival

Oundle
FOR ORGANISTS

www.oundlefestival.org.uk