Bach in the Dark

Lose yourself in the hypnotic and intricate world of Bach's organ music, as the sun goes down on another packed Festival day. The colours of the Festival organ at the Jesus Church well suit Bach's music, and David Sanger's programme will explore JSB's chorals, and preludes and fugues. He concludes with the famous Gigue Fugue.

David, playing at the top of his game, was recently elected as President of the Royal College of Organists. He maintains his profile as one of the most admired performers and generous outgoing personalities on today's organ scene; we are privileged to enjoy his support as consultant tutor to the Oundle for Organists programme. This will be special!

Candlelight.

The recital ends at 10.45pm.

Live video link from the organ loft will enable the audience to see the performer.

Handelabra

The Queen of Sheba arrives - and departs - to frame this multi-branched celebration of Handel's music, and its resonance in pieces by other composers for the organ. Handel (d.1759) features in our musical celebrations this year and Gerard's entertaining programme includes Guilman's March on Handel's Lift up your heads, Grainger's Handel in the Strand, and new pieces by Paul Ayres and Thomas Neal - alongside Voluntary on a Flight of Angels, and Organ Concerto in D minor (Op. 7 no 4) by Britain's own nationalised institution, the great GFH.

Gerard, recently appointed Director of Music at Methodist Central Hall, Westminster, is one of the nimblest players in the business - and this recital should be fun!

The recital ends at 2.10pm.

A pre-concert light lunch is available at the church at 12 noon. Doors open at 12.55pm for those wishing to attend the recital only.

The Three Musketeers by Alexandre Dumas

All for One, One for All; young D'Artagnan is desperate to join Athos, Porthos and Aramis as a Musketeer of the King's Guard. But are his swashbuckling credentials sufficient? Find out as the fearless four rescue the Queen's diamonds, restore her honour, survive the plots laid by the scheming Cardinal Richelieu, race the clock to save the hapless Mme Bonancieux, and cross swords with one of the original, and most deadly, femmes fatales: Milady de Winter. This brand new production, specially adapted for international award-winning Illyria, is sumptuously costumed, fast-moving, and suitable for all ages 8+.

Bring a picnic and low-backed chairs or rugs – no seating provided. Refreshments (bar and coffee) available.

This open-air performance will be cancelled in the event of a hurricane only!

The performance ends at 9.10pm.
