Welcome to the 2009
Music in Quiet Places Series

This year's series offers a bigger than ever range of nine concerts to suit all types of classical music palette, from those who like their music totally untampered-with, to those who prefer a little variety. Performances take place in some of the most serene and beautiful villages in Northamptonshire. We are grateful as always to the churches for hosting the concerts and for welcoming everyone so warmly.

Car parking may be found near to the churches, but could be on unlit streets.

Refreshments will usually be available during the intervals, provided by members of the church and with the income going to church funds.

Toilet facilities are available at Thurning, Pilton and Kings Cliffe churches

Remember that pews are often hard – please do bring a cushion if you wish; all seats are unreserved.

Disabled concert-goers are welcome at all our concerts. For assistance with access or for more information about the churches please telephone 01832 274919.

Some of the churches are in quite remote locations; if you would like directions, or information about the churches, please phone 01832 274919 and we will be glad to help.

Classic Buskers

Friday 8 May, 8pm Thurning – Church of St James the Great

A great sense of humour and amazing virtuosity are the primary features of this wonderfully entertaining pair, the Classic Buskers.

Their ingenious, often irreverent interpretations of the classical repertoire are produced on more than 40 woodwind instruments. Ranging from recorders, flutes, panpipes, crumhorns and ocarinas to a pico pipe and a rubber trout, they are accompanied by a small but perfectly formed accordion, either pink or yellow.

A great show from two extremely talented classically trained musicians, and a must for those who know a little about classical music (listen out for an endless stream of musical jokes) or indeed for anybody who simply appreciates wit and wants to be entertained.

Eclipse

Friday 15 May, 8pm Titchmarsh – Church of St Mary the Virgin

An enthralling journey into early music from Italy and Spain, Eclipse brings the richness of Medieval and Baroque music into the 21st century, with their programme 'Spring Festa!'. With haunting Chaconas, wild improvisations and the swirling Tarantella, this thrilling ensemble portrays a world of unruly passions and extreme emotions.

Their fascinating programme includes music by Castello, Uccellini, Pandolfi and their peers, played on original instruments including early harps, recorders, Baroque violin, and viol.
